Tournament Rules

Date 01.02.2017

Insurance

The participants have to insure themselves for accidents and theft. The organiser doesn't take over any liability.

Fighting pass/licence for members

Every member-fighter has to show a valid SKBF-Pass with the current year licence, otherwise you must buy a daily licence.

Daily licence & registration fee for non-members

Externally interested clubs can participate in the tournaments at all times, provided that they buy a daily licence and have payed the registration fee. Exception for Full Contact fighters this year 2017, for details see the following regulation.

Special regulation for participants for the Full Contact Swiss Championship 2017

To participate on 2017, you don't need to be a member of WAKO Switzerland, no official SKBF Pass a licence are needed. The registration is open for all Organizations. You pay only the registration fee. It's a special rule which is decided from the board of directors. It should help this discipline to establish in our organisation.

Title for the Swiss Champion

Per decision of the assembly of delegates, every club, even without a membership at the SKBF, can participate at our tournaments. This is a possibility for all qualifying tournaments. To have a right to fight the title match in Full Contact or to get a title of Swiss Champion in all other disciplines, the clubs must be joined to our organisation. Provided that the clubs have filled out a registration form and payed the following taxes for members:

Full Contact: CHF 200 (in 2017 no licencing requirement)

All other disciplines: CHF 200 plus at least 5 licences of CHF 60 for a whole championship season. The membership can also be requested during the season. Titles for Swiss Champions can therefor only be given to members.

According to the time of requirement the board of directors decide about the real taxes which must be payed. Taxes for licences and their high, will be individually decided. It'll depend on the real incident of the requestor, at the time of filling in the request. The tax for membership of CHF 200 is independent from the time of requirement, it's obligatory in every case.

Minors

The permission for competition for minors under 18 years has to be signed in the sport pass on page 4 or on the form from the website.

Protective equipment

Every fighter is responsible for the obligatory protective equipment. The toe nails have to be cut shortly.

For everyone mandatory: headgear, gumshield, men cup, women plastron, separated feed and shin protection, hand bandages. For Full Contact with Low Kick please consider the regulations for safety equipment corresponding to the rules at point.
